

July 3, 1940.

Mr. Joseph E. Conlon,
Acting Prosecutor,
Court House,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I have just received word from Attorney J. Bernard Johnson of the steps you had taken in handling my protest against the actions of Mr. Fred Clark, the editor of The New Jersey Guardian.

Please accept my thanks and believe me that everything I told you was true.

I am enclosing a clipping that appeared in The Newark Evening News on June 21st, which you can of course credit as a true story, and which proves as untrue all the things Mr. Clark wrote about The Eagles and Paige.

It is unfortunate that he based his attack on a racial angle during these troubled times when so much progress has been made in overcoming this big issue, but if he obeys your orders, I guess the damage he has done will be repaired in due time.

Again let me say, please accept my thanks for your assistance and co-operation.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ